“The Apocalypse” is the end of the world, at least as we know it. We have derived that understanding from the book of Revelation, which has also been called The Apocalypse and which begins with the words, “The Apocalypse of Jesus Christ” (1:1a).

Voices: COVID-19 and the Apocalypse: Not what you think

In English it popularly refers to the cataclysmic end of the world but in biblical Greek apocalypse means revelation. The book of Revelation isn't so much about the destruction of the world as we know it as it is a revelation or unveiling of who Jesus really is. It's the apocalypse of Jesus who comes to save and restore the whole earth.
