'Deadly Unna' is an incoherent, unorganised complete mess of a novel, consisting of bad characters and a boring plot. 'Deadly Unna' has clumsy character dialogue and the climax of the story is non-existent and unimpactful. Nothing in this books shouts 'unique' or even 'interesting' it is quite literally the complete opposite of those.

The way I defined compassion for this day was, "the expression of not only caring, but feeling for others", and I focused mainly on helping my close friends/loved ones. During my day of compassion, my main focus was listening to others, focusing on their needs, and really trying to not just understand or care about what they are saying, but to feel what they are expressing.
