With Fifteen Feet of Time: A Picture Story by Lena Hesse and Philipp Winterberg, the authors have written a picture book whimsical enough for children, but with a message that's more squarely directed at parents. The story revolves around the anthropomorphized animal (and occasional object) citizens of a crowded and busy fictional city.

The Routemaster Double-Decker buses, well-known as icons of London, measure 27.50 feet in length. The buses were said to be well-designed for travel in the London traffic, as they offered an open door for riders to board and exit even while the bus was moving at low speeds, and a full-time conductor to collect fares.
