The Arsonist by Sue Miller First Appearing in The Roanoke Times 10/05/2014 "The Arsonist" is the misleading title for Sue Miller's latest book. While there is the backdrop of arson – who is setting fire to houses in this rural town? – the novel is actually literary fiction where character trumps plot. Miller deftly draws...

The Arsonist by Sue Miller | On the Bookshelf

July 2014. Someone is setting fire to the houses of Pomeroy, New Hampshire, in Sue Miller's latest novel, but that's beside the point. The important thing is that Francesca "Frankie" Rowley has returned from a long sojourn in Africa as an aid worker and she doesn't know what to do with herself. Besides, the thing that lights her fire is Bud Jacobs, the local newspaper editor whose life is just as up in the air as hers is.
